THE OPTIONS GAME LAUNCH HOSTED AT MILL HOUSE

📅 Friday 9 December, 9am - 4pm
📍 Mill House Neighbourhood House,
88-90 Burke Street, Maryborough

Hosted by Rotary Maryborough and Mill House, join Dr Lowen Clarke, Director of Creative and Therapeutic Arts, Millhouse, for the launch of a new campaign, The Options Game to help prevention of family violence.

The campaign is designed to help men become more able to observe themselves 'losing it' and pull themselves back from the brink.

RSVP is essential on 5461 3185.

For those seeking help with family violence the Orange Door Network is now providing a free service for people of all ages and backgrounds across the Loddon region. They can also provide support to families in need of support with the care, wellbeing and development of children. This includes support for those who may be concerned about friends, family, neighbours or community members experiencing family violence.
